Bülent Güngör, Senior Vice President of Yüksel İnşaat

said “With the

Yılmaz Sazak International Athletics Meetings

that we support most willingly, we intend to offer a chance of gaining experience in this field to the young athletics fans. As a company which has internalized the concept of sustainability with all its aspects and included this concept in our priority values, we believe that the offered benefits will be no use unless these benefits are continued, thus we seek to continue the projects we carried out with its effects being increased for years to come... Yılmaz Sazak International Athletics Meetings have improved and grown within years and expanded beyond tracks in order to provide further support to athletics and miscellaneous events have been organized during the competitions. And Yılmaz Sazak Photography Exhibition which has brought us together here today is one of these events. I would like to thank the TAV Management once again for their full support to us in this journey that we have taken with an aim to contribute to the society, our valuable children and their futures through

Yılmaz Sazak International Athletics Meetings
