

The Radisson Blu M'Bamou Palace, called "the highest quality hotel in Central and West Africa" by managing group and local authorities, was completed in record time by Yüksel İnşaat, and is now in service. The Radisson Blu M'Bamou Palace Hotel in Brazzaville, the Capital of the Republic of the Congo, whose construction began in 2014, has been completed by Yüksel İnşaat. The goal was to ensure that the hotel would be ready for the Africa Olympic Games set to take place on 4-19 September in Brazzaville. The hotel opened its door to its first guests. Yüksel İnşaat redesigned the entire structure according to international 5-star standards, having taken over the project with the rough construction work on the basic structure of main building done and the flashing on the tower partially completed. With all of the additions made to the building, the rough and detail manufacturing work for the hotel, which has 20,000 square meters of closed space, as well as all of the electromechanical work carried out by SASEL were completed in record time.

{backbutton}